ROCKY MOUNTAIN LACROSSE LEAGUE JUNIOR A DRAFT SUCCESS

Medicine Hat (02/05/2024) - The Southern Alberta Lacrosse Association (SALA) is pleased to announce that the following SALA graduated U17 Players have been drafted by the Junior A Mountaineers of the Rocky Mountain Junior A Lacrosse League (RMJALL).

- Garrett Janzen (Brooks Drillers/SALA Sting) - 1st Round 2nd Overall Raiders
- Kayden Yeaman (Brooks Drillers/SALA Sting) - 2nd Round 7th Overall Mounties
- Alex Mundell (Lethbridge Cudas/SALA Sting) - 3rd Round 11th Overall Raiders
- Taylor Tisdale (Lethbridge Cudas/SALA Sting) - 6th Round 23rd Overall Raiders
- Dashel Robichaud (Brooks Drillers/SALA Sting) - 9th Round 34th Overall Mounties

Junior A is the highest level of box lacrosse for players aged 16-21 in Canada. Every February, RMJALL teams from Calgary, Edmonton and Saskatchewan each draft up to 10 first year players, while additional undrafted players can be signed as free agents. Each team can carry up to 50 players on their protected list.

By entering Junior A, these players join SALA alumni Reis Bower (Lethbridge), Carter Cook (Lethbridge), Houston Eakins (Medicine Hat), Parker Forrest (Brooks), Daine Mattson (Medicine Hat), Chase Misesek (Lethbridge), Jayden Richards (Medicine Hat), and Kaelen Snee (Lethbridge), who are all on the Mountaineers protected list.

“Southern Alberta’s lacrosse community is flourishing, and the success of these players serves as a source of inspiration for our numerous minor players, may their achievements fuel the growth and passion for lacrosse in the region.” Says Southern Alberta Lacrosse Association President Sarah MacKenzie. “Their dedication and passion have propelled them to this milestone, may their journey in Junior A lacrosse be filled with continued success and triumphs on and off the floor.”
